LIQUOR REGULATIONS

In accordance with the Alberta Gaming and Liquor Commission regulations:

Section 5. Customer Service

5.1 Minors

- 5.1.12 A licensee will ensure staff demand proof of age when a person of questionable age (anyone who appears to be less than 25 years of age) requests to be given any liquor or to purchase liquor.
Photograph identification must be presented upon request.

5.2 Liquor Service in Licensed Premises

- 5.2.1 a) liquor must never be sold, provided to or consumed by minors or intoxicated persons

Section 6. Premises Management

6.7 Patron Management

- 6.7.1 The licensee must manage patrons. This includes:

b) refusing liquor service and consumption of liquor to persons who appear to be intoxicated or under the influence of drugs

NOTE: Common signs of intoxication include falling down, staggering, lack of coordination, disorderly appearance, bloodshot eyes, slurred speech and alcohol on breath.

c) refusing liquor service and removing individuals whose behavior becomes quarrelsome, riotous or disorderly

- 6.7.2 A licensee must ensure no person is permitted to remove liquor from the licensed premises.

In accordance with GP Curling Club regulations:

1.0 Beverage Requests by Banquets

- 1.1 GP Curling Club has the right to limit the number of drink tickets requested.
1.2 All beverage holes must be approved by the GP Curling Club and in accordance with AGLC laws.
1.3 All beverages must be purchased at the Curling Club.
The liquor license for GP Curling Club does not allow banquets to bring their own alcohol onto premises.
1.4 The GP Curling Club reserves the right to ask any intoxicated person to leave the facility.

I, the banquet coordinator have read the above liquor regulations and agree to abide to these policies and take responsibility for all persons and their actions.
